The liberation of Terezin concentration camp is at hand, and the Nazis are in retreat, desperate to destroy evidence of their crimes. This compelling sequel to I NEVER SAW ANOTHER BUTTERFLY is the story of Raja Englanderova, a teenage survivor of Terezin. She and other children discover the hundreds of drawings and writings hidden by their teachers and get them past the Nazis. Due to their heroic rescue and escape these drawings and poems of the 15,000 children who passed through Terezin concentration camp from 1941 to 1945 now belong to the State Jewish Museum in Prague. This one act will be EGRHS's submission in the MIFA state-wide theatre festival.
